[JULY, MDCCLXX.] THE [NUMB. 242.]

SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1770.

BOSTON, MAY 28.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, New-Hampſhire.

I Rejoice to hear that the Spirit of Liberty with you retains its Fervour, notwithſtanding the numerous Efforts of the ns of Corruption to oppoſe your glorious Deſigns. May you on and proſper! May you be the Inſtruments, in the Hands Providence, to ſave this ſpreading Empire from Slavery and ſery; while the Tools of Tyranny meet that Puniſhment ich is due to their aggravated Guilt. You juſtly obſerve that, had our Efforts been unanimous and ſpirited, we ſhould long r now have obtained Relief." This Union, however difficult obtain, muſt be endeavoured by unwearied and unceaſing plication.

"The Merchants here have received a letter from the Mer-nts in Boſton on the Affair of Non-Importation, but have not come to a final Reſolution, happy ſhould we be, had we a erous HANCOCK here to lead the Way! Such a Bleſſing is erved for Boſton. The Inhabitants of this Province are in ge-al, as true Friends to Liberty as thoſe in the other Colonies, they as powerful Leaders."

The beginning of this Week his Majeſty's Ship Mermaid, tain Smith, arrived here from Halifax. Several Officers of Regiments there came Paſſengers in the Mermaid.

MAY 31. Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of the Day ap-nted by the Royal Charter for the Election of Counſellors for Province, the Great and General Court of Aſſembly met at vard-College in Cambridge, at Nine o'Clock in the Morning; n the uſual Oaths were admitted to the Gentlemen who were rned to ſerve as Members of the honourable Houſe of Re-ntatives, who alſo ſubſcribed to the Declaration:---The ſe then made Choice of Mr. Samuel Adams for their Clerk; which they choſe the Honourable Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; Speaker.

bout Ten o'Clock his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, be-ſcorted by the Troop of Guards from his Seat at Milton, arrived at Harvard-College, and being in the Chair, a Committee of the Houſe preſented the Speaker elect to his Honour, who afterwards ſent a Meſſage in Writing, agreeable to the Royal explanatory Charter, that he approved of their Choice. The Houſe then choſe a Committee to remonſtrate to his Honour on calling the Aſſembly at that Place.

At Eleven o'Clock his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, accompanied by the Honourable his Majeſty's Council, the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, and a Number of other Gentlemen, preceded by the Firſt Company in Cambridge of the Regiment of Militia, commanded by the Hon. Brigadier Brattle, went in Proceſſion to the Meeting-Houſe, where a Sermon ſuitable to the Occaſion was preached by the Rev. Mr. Samuel Cooke, of Cambridge, from theſe Words, 2 Sam. xxiii. 3, 4. "The God of Iſrael ſaid, the Rock of Iſrael ſpoke to me, He "that ruleth over Men muſt be juſt, ruling in the Fear of God: "And he ſhall be as the Light of the Morning, when the Sun "riſeth, even a Morning without Clouds; as the tender Graſs "ſpringing out of the Earth by clear ſhining after Rain." After divine Service the Proceſſion returned to Harvard-Hall, where an Entertainment was provided, at which were a Number of Gentlemen who had been invited by his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor and Council.

In the Afternoon the Committee of the Houſe reported the Remonſtrance, which was agreed to, and a Committee choſen to wait on his Honour with the ſame; but not being in the Chair, they paſſed the following Reſolves, to be entered on their Journal.

WHEREAS this Houſe have paſſed a Remonſtrance to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor againſt the holding the General Court in this Place, or any other than in the Town of Boſton, which Remonſtrance cannot now be preſented, his Honour not being in the Chair: And whereas according to the Royal Charter of this Province it is neceſſary that this Court proceed to the Choice of Counſellors for the Year enſuing, on this Day, being the laſt Wedneſday in May.

Therefore, Reſolved, That this Houſe do now proceed to the ſaid Election of Counſellors only from Neceſſity:---PROTESTING againſt its being drawn into a precedent hereafter, or conſidered as a voluntary receeding of this Houſe from their conſtitutional Claim.

Previous to the Choice of Counſellors, Letters were read, from the Hon. Benjamin Lincoln, the Hon. John Hill, and the Hon. Gamaliel Bradford, Eſquires, reſigning their Seats at the Council Board, on Account of their Age and bodily Indiſpoſition.

The following Gentlemen were elected Counſellors for the enſuing Year, viz.

For the late Colony of Plymouth. * James Otis, William Sever, * Jerathmeel Bowers, * Walter Spooner, Eſquires.

For Sagadahock. * James Gowen, Eſquire.

At large. * James Humphry, * George Leonard, jun. Eſqrs.

The Gentlemen with this [*] Mark, were not of the Council laſt Year.

The Liſt of Counſellors choſen Yeſterday, being this Day, agreeable to the Direction of the Royal Charter, preſented to the Lieutenant-Governor, his Honour was pleaſed to conſent to the Election of the Gentlemen before-mentioned, except the Hon. John Hancock, and Jerathmeel Bowers, Eſquires.

Joſeph Gerriſh, Eſq; declined going to the Board.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary for the Election of Counſellors, agreeable to the Royal Charter, his Honour in Obedience to the Mandate of a Miniſter of State, appointed the General-Court to convene at Cambridge, whereas the expreſs Letter of the Law ordains the Election to be made in Boſton, being the moſt proper, convenient, as well as ancient Seat of Government of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay.---The Morning was ushered in with Muſic parading the Streets, and an Ox, which on the Afternoon before was conveyed through the Town decorated with Ribbons, Flowers, &c. was early put to the Fire at the Bottom of the Common; the Novelty of an Ox roaſting whole, excited the Curiosity of the People, and incredible Numbers from this and the neighbouring Towns, reſorted to the Spot, to view ſo unuſual a Spectacle, at Eleven o'Clock the ſeveral Batteries in the Town diſcharged their Cannon, preſently after, divine Service began at the Old-Brick-Meeting-Houſe, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Mather, the worthy Deſcendant of the excellent Doctors Increaſe and Cotton Mather, and legitimate Heir to their political as well as religious Principles, opened the Solemnity with Prayer; the Rev. Dr. Chauncey, that inflexible Aſſertor of our civil and religious Rights, entertained a numerous and very reſpectable Audience with an animated Diſcourſe, well ſuited to the Occaſion, from Pſalm xxii. ver. 4. "Our Fathers truſted in thee: they truſted, "and thou didſt deliver them." Public Worſhip concluded with an Anthem admirably performed by a ſelect Company procured for that Purpoſe. The Clergy and a great Number of principal Gentlemen from this and the neighbouring Towns then proceeded to Faneuil-Hall, where an elegant Entertainment was provided, and attended with Chearfulneſs, Decency, and good Order, peculiar to the Favourites of Freedom and Science. After Dinner the following Toaſts were drank, and ſaluted with loud Huzzas, and the diſcharge of Guns. 1. The King, ordained for the good of the People.---2. The Queen, and her Royal Progeny.---3. Perpetuity to our civil and religious Liberties.---4. The reverend and worthy Corporation of Harvard-College.---5. May the eldeſt Seat of the Muſes in America never degenerate into a Theatre of Deſpotiſm.---6. The Immortal Memory of our pious Forefathers.---7. The glorious Minority in both Houſes of Parliament.---8. The independent Freeholders of the County of Middleſex.---9. The illuſtrious Chatham, Camden, Rockingham, Shelburne, Richmond, and the other noble Lords who have generouſly eſpouſed the Cauſe of America.---10. The virtuous Commons who chooſe rather to relinquiſh their Seats in a corrupt Senate than ſacrifice their Conſcience or Honour.---11. May the Names of Saville, Meredith, Barré, Pownal, Burke, and the other inflexible Patriots who have ſignalized themſelves in Support of conſtitutional Freedom be tranſmitted to Poſterity with Honour.---12. The Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of London.---13. May Great-Britain and her Colonies be ſpeedily united on juſt Principles.---14. Proſperity to the Maſſachuſetts-Bay.---15. Our Siſter Colonies who have ſteadily oppoſed miniſterial Tyranny.---* 16. Confirmed Health to the patriot Otis.---17. May the preſent Houſe of Repreſentatives emulate their glorious Predeceſſors.---18. The diſintereſted merchants of the town of Boſton.---19. The Farmer of Pennſylvania, Chriſtopher Gadſden, and John M'Kenzie, Eſqrs. of South-Carolina, and all the ſtrenuous advocates for American freedom.---20. John Wilkes, Eſq; Captain M'Dougall, and all perſecuted Patriots.---21. Our ſuffering Brethren at Cambridge, whoſe Hearts are with us, while their Bodies are unconſtitutionally torn from us.

* Mr. Otis having unexpectedly favoured the Company with his Preſence, after the Town had expreſſed their Solicitude for his Recovery in the preceding Toaſts, ſtood up and addreſſed the Toaſt-Maſter, returned Proſperity to the preſent Company, to the Town of Boſton, to North-America.

The whole Affair was conducted to the Satisfaction of every Individual preſent, and the Hall was cleared at about Five o'Clock, the Poor of the Town were preſented with the Ox which was roaſted for that Purpoſe, and temperately ſhared in the Feſtivity of the Day.

This Day his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH to both Houſes, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

NOT having received any ſpecial Commands from his Majeſty to be communicated to you, I have only to recommend to your Conſideration the public Buſineſs of the Province, which it has been uſual for the General Court to act upon at this Seaſon of the Year.

Analagous to the Conſtitution of the Supreme Legiſlature, it is with you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, to originate a Bill for ſupplying the Treaſury with a Sum ſufficient to defray the neceſſary Charges of Government, an eſtimate of which the Treaſurer will lay before you. The Conſideration of the Tax for the preſent Year comes alſo within the ſame Rule. For ſeveral Years paſt the Taxes have been much reduced, and in one Year there was no provincial Tax; a large public Debt therefore ſtill remains, with which the preſent Year is burdened, and you will, I doubt not, think it greater than your Conſtituents can conveniently diſcharge at once. I am ready to give my Conſent to a Bill for reducing this Sum, and charging a part of it upon a future Year; but out of Regard to the public Intereſt, I cannot help putting you in Mind, that although we are now in a ſtate of Peace, yet from the Viciſſitudes to which all human Affairs are liable, and from the preſent Commotions in Europe, the Time of our Continuance in this State is very uncertain, and his Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions may ere long be again involved in War. If we ſhall have then a large public Debt remaining, it will be a heavy Clog upon us, and we may ſee too late that it is good Policy in Times of Peace to diſcharge the Debts incurred in Times of War. If I am rightly informed, ſome of the other Colonies are entirely free from their Debts contracted in the laſt War, and all of them are more ſo in Proportion than we are.

I will not determine, Gentlemen, but I pray you to conſider, whether the diſcontinuing the Exciſe upon Spirituous Liquors, which uſed to eaſe the Tax upon Polls and Eſtates, has been of Advantage to the Province, or whether it is not poſſible, that it has only cauſed a proportionably greater unneceſſary Conſumption of ſuch Liquors, to the detriment of the Health and Morals of the People.

Gentlemen of the Council,
Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

A multitude of Petitions came before the General Court the laſt Year, ſome of which ſeemed to be of very ſmall Importance, and I thought it hardly conſiſtent with the Dignity of the Court to take Cognizance of them. The Aſſembly then paſſed one Act, which had a Tendency to leſſen the Number of private Petitions, and I ſhould be glad if further Expedients could be agreed upon to the like Purpoſes.

I wiſh for a happy Harmony in the Legiſlature, and I will moſt readily concur with you in every Meaſure you ſhall propoſe, as far as can conſiſt with my Duty to the King, and the Regard I bear to the Intereſt of the Province.

THOMAS HUTCHINSON.

JUNE 4. The following is an Extract of a Letter from London, March 28.---"A Bill is now forming, and will ſhortly be laid before the Houſe of Commons, to fix Cuſtom-Houſe Fees independent of provincial Aſſemblies. It ſeems by a late Act, the Aſſembly of Rhode-Iſland have declared, that the Judgment of their inferior Court ſhall be final in all Actions concerning Cuſtom-Houſe Fees, which prevents the Collector from appealing Home, as Appeals can only lie from the ſuperior Court. This ſtroke of Policy, however they may admire it themſelves, will totally defeat their own Purpoſes. This Stride towards Independency has rendered Cuſtom-Houſe Matters an Object worthy the Attention of Parliament; and the Neceſſity of paſſing the aforementioned Bill, will chiefly be founded on this new Act. A State of the Fees for twenty Years back have been made out, from which a Medium will be ſtruck, and the Fees ſettled."

One Day laſt Week the Hon. G----- M---s, Eſq; Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at New-Haven, and the Commiſſioners Inſpector-General Extraordinary came to Town (by Land or Water) from South-Carolina, and the Summer-Iſles; where 'tis ſaid he has been upwards of two Years on an important Service for their High Mightineſſes, over and above that of ſettling the Turtle Fithery in thoſe Parts upon a delicate and advantageous Footing, and which Service, ſome ſay, he has performed with great Oeconomy; for ſomething leſs than twelve hundred Pounds Sterling expence to his Majeſty's American Revenue.

JUNE 7. Yeſterday the Houſe of Repreſentatives, after a long and very fair Debate, came into a Reſolution, by a Diviſion of 96 to 6, not to proceed to any Buſineſs out of the Town of Boſton; and appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs to his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, deſiring that the General Aſſembly may be moved to its ancient and uſual Place the Town-Houſe in Boſton.

JUNE 11. A Committee of the honourable Houſe, waited on his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor the 5th Inſtant, at Cambridge, to deſire that he would favour them with a Copy of his Inſtructions for convening the Court at Harvard-College, to be laid before the Houſe.

To which his Honour returned the following Anſwer.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

YOU have ſent me a verbal Meſſage by a Committee, who have deſired a Copy of my Inſtruction or Inſtructions relative to my convening the General Court at Harvard-College. I have no Inſtruction for convening the Court at Harvard-College, and I am willing to adjourn or prorogue it to any Part of the Town of Cambridge, where it can be accommodated.

My Orders are ſufficient to convince me that it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure the Court ſhould be held in Cambridge, but I am not at Liberty to lay a Copy of thoſe Orders before the Houſe, being reſtrained by a general Inſtruction, which requires me to make no Copies of Letters or Papers from the Secretary of State public, without ſpecial Leave firſt given me ſo to do. I take no Pleaſure in refuſing to comply with the Requeſt of the Houſe, but you will not expect me to do any Thing inconſiſtent with my Duty to the King.

THOMAS HUTCHINSON.

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia, May 24.

"Our Sons of Liberty make up almoſt the whole of our people, and are determined to ſupport the Non-Importation Agreement, are very ſorry that any Goods are ſhipped at Boſton, &c. but are well ſatisfied with the Conduct of the Bottonians reſpecting the late Importation; however they ſeem to think that the Goods which cannot be re-ſhipped ſhould be burnt, or ſent ſomewhere out of Britiſh America. We are governed much by this Principle, that no Stranger by importing ſhall take the Advantage of our Self-denial in Trade, but as our Merchants have nobly ſacrificed their Buſineſs for the public Good, they ſhall not be deprived of the firſt run of Buſineſs, as they would, had others full Stores ready to be vended on the firſt News of a Repeal."

Laſt Thurſday Afternoon, being the Adjournment of the Meeting of the Trade, there was a very general Attendance, probably on Account of the promiſed Appearance of the infamous McMaſters, and the Propoſals of Nathaniel Rogers for a Re-admiſſion to the Favour and Friendſhip of his Fellow-Citizens. The McMaſters, agreeable to the uſual Generoſity of their Conduct, laſt the Trade to make what Reflections they pleaſed upon their good Faith; and, it is thought, are conveying themſelves and Property out of Town privately.

Mr. Rogers's Propoſals were read, and ſtrongly urged by Mr. Molineux, to whom he had applied in the moſt ſuppliant Manner, declaring that he was ready to make any Acknowledgments and Engagements that could be reaſonably deſired; in ſhort, to do every Thing in his Power to ſatisfy the People and recover their Eſteem, as Life he obſerved was burthenſome to him in his preſent unhappy Condition. The Gentlemen who anſwered Mr. Molineux obſerved, that though Mr. Rogers appeared now very uneaſy with his unhappy Condition, it was notorious that for a Series of Years he had moſt wickedly abuſed this, his native Country in a Correſpondence with the Miniſtry, and was now upon the point of entering upon the Reward of his political Iniquity---that as Secretary of the Province, it would be very convenient for him to have the Smiles of the People; and perhaps as much ſo, to have a good Pretence for returning conſiderable Quantities of Goods, which, known to be his, could not reaſonably be expected to have a very ready Sale. The Speakers on both Sides treated the Affair with Seriouſneſs and Candour, and after a very full Debate adjourned the further Conſideration of it to a future Day, probably with Deſign never to take it up again.

We are credibly informed, that there was made in the Town of Goſhen in Connecticut, in the Months of February and March laſt, (from the Sap of Maple Trees) 40,000 wt. of Sugar. There was made laſt Year in the ſame Town, about 37,000 wt.

JUNE 21. Tueſday Morning laſt an Expreſs came from New-York, with Diſpatches for his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor.

JUNE 25. Monday laſt arrived here Captain Hall, from London, in whom came Paſſengers, Mr. John Nazro, Dr. Dowſe, with ſundry other Perſons; among them was Patrick Smith, with the Goods he re-ſhipped laſt Year, and for which the Trade here then paid the Freight Home, and who has, ſince his Arrival, (together with the McMaſters) prudently retired to the Caſtle.

A Committee of the Town of Marblehead, having applied to the late General Court, ſetting forth, That there have been loſt at Sea, ſince January 1768, belonging to that Town, 29 Sail of Fishing and Merchant Veſſels, in which 170 Men and Boys have perished, whereby 70 Women are left Widows, with 250 fatherleſs Children, and many Parents deprived of the Earnings of their Sons, which was their chief Support; and that many Families, ſince theſe unhappy Shipwrecks, have had ſcarce any other Subſiſtance than what has come from the Bounty of their charitable Friends and Neighbours, &c. praying for a Brief; and the Council and Houſe of Repreſentatives having deſired the Lieutenant-Governor to iſſue a Brief; his Honour accordingly iſſued one laſt Week.

Laſt Tueſday Afternoon, between Two and Three o'Clock, one of the McMaſters, the noted Importers, contrary to the Agreement of the Merchants, and to whom it was lately intimated that it was the Minds of the Inhabitants in general that they ſhould depart the Town with their Perſons and Properties, as they would avoid the Conſequences of the public Reſentment, was taken at the South Part of the Town, and put into a Cart, with ſome Tar in a Barrel and Bag of Feathers; but on his being carted ſome Time on his Way to King-ſtreet, where it was ſaid he was to undergo the Indignity of this modern Puniſhment; when the Cart drew near the Town-houſe, he appeared to be greatly frightened, which the Humanity of ſome Perſons preſent, imagining might produce a Fainting Fit, he was thereupon permitted to go into a Gentleman's Houſe for a ſhort Time, properly attended, in order to recover himſelf; where he ſoon after ſolemnly promiſed, that if he might be ſpared from being tarred and feathered, he would immediately leave the Town, and never come into it again; which being agreed to upon Condition that he ſhould be carried out in the Cart, he readily conſented, and a Chair being placed therein, in lieu of the Tar Barrel, he was then carted out of Town as far as Roxbury Line, and having ſworn that he would abide by his Promiſe, he was then diſmiſſed without receiving any Damage, and his numerous Attendants peaceably returned again. Search was made for another of the McMaſters, but he could not be found. A third who went to Marblehead, was ordered out of that Town; from whence he went to Salem, where he could get no Lodging, and a Signal being there given he was obliged to quit that Town alſo.

We hear from Brookline, that on Tueſday Night laſt, between Eleven and Twelve o'Clock, the Windows of the Dwelling-houſe of Mr. Hulton, one of the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms, were broken by Perſons unknown. Upon Complaint made by Mr. Hulton, his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, with the Advice of his Majeſty's Council, has iſſued a Proclamation, offering a Reward of 50l. for the Diſcovery of the Offenders. We hear Mr. Hulton has ſince retired to the Caſtle.

On Friday laſt a Committee of the Houſe of Repreſentatives waited on the Lieutenant-Governor with the following Meſſage, VIZ.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

IN your laſt Meſſage to this Houſe, you was pleaſed to ſay, that you were in daily Expectation of a Letter from his Majeſty's Secretary of State, which it is probable would contain Matters of Importance to the Government; and that therefore you then thought it neceſſary that the Court ſhould continue ſitting ſome Time longer.

The Houſe would be glad to be informed, whether in Conſequence of any Letters you have received by the Packet now arrived, your Honour has any Matter to lay before the Aſſembly. If ſo, the Houſe is ready to attend their Duty, provided you will be pleaſed to remove the Aſſembly to its conſtitutional Place, the Town-houſe in Boſton; but if your Honour is yet determined againſt ſuch removal, the Members of the Houſe are very deſirous of returning to their reſpective Homes.

The Day following his Honour ſent down the following Meſſage to both Houſes of Aſſembly, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I Cannot remove the Court to Boſton. I am ſo ſenſible of the Miſchief which muſt be the Conſequence of your final Refuſal to proceed in the public Buſineſs, that I muſt earneſtly recommend to you a Re-conſideration of your Vote or Reſolves to the contrary. I am ſtill in Expectation of important Advices. If I ſhould not receive any before Monday, and you ſhall perſiſt in your Refuſal, it is my Intention then to give you a ſhort Receſs.

Cambridge, THOMAS HUTCHINSON.
June 21, 1770.

The foregoing Meſſage being read in the Houſe of Repreſentatives, the Queſtion was moved and put, Whether the Houſe ſtill adhere to their Reſolution not to proceed to Buſineſs while the Aſſembly is thus held out of the Town-houſe in Boſton? Paſſed unanimouſly in the Affirmative.

Extract of a Letter from New-York, dated June 19, 1770.

"The Proceedings of your Town relative to the Congreſs propoſed by our Committee of Merchants (without any Authority) is highly approved of by every Friend to his Country here. The Anſwer from Philadelphia, to ſaid Propoſal, was ſimilar to yours. Thoſe patriotic replies to our infamous Propoſals, made Matters quiet a few Days; but on the 11th Inſtant a Majority of the Importers collected a Number of People privately, and agreed to go about the City, in order to get the People to ſign a Paper to break the Non-Importation Agreement, and notwithſtanding they made uſe of the moſt diabolical Means to induce them to ſign, they could not procure (by their own Account) more than eleven Hundred and odd Names, which is not more than one fourth of the People who have a right to give their Voice on the Matter. When their Liſt was brought in, to their private Meeting, to be counted, they refuſed, waiting to ſee what Number were for abiding by the Agreement, and reſolved to ſend off expreſſes to Boſton and Philadelphia immediately, which they did Yeſterday: You are to underſtand, that moſt of the People who ſigned for Importing, ſigned on Condition that Boſton and Philadelphia did the ſame, ſo that it now reſts with you and Philadelphia, whether we ſhall be Slaves or Freemen; for if you and Philadelphia ſtand firm, joined to the People here, we ſhall prevent the Agreement's being broke. The Impudence and Stupidity of our Merchants is amazing, in ſending this ſecond Expreſs, after you had aſſured them, that you were determined to abide by the Agreement. You may reſt aſſured, that the Friends to conſtitutional Liberty here will leave nothing undone in their Power, to preſerve the Agreement inviolate. I am of Opinion, that it is in the Power of Boſton and Philadelphia, to prevent Bloodſhed in this City, as there are a conſiderable Number who declare they will have Recourſe to the Sword, before they will ſuffer the Agreement to be broke. For my own Part, I ſhould think myſelf a Fool, to take up Arms to oppoſe an Invaſion of a Foreign Enemy, after ſubmitting to be enſlaved by my Fellow Citizens."

At New-Haven, the Traders, Tradeſmen, &c. agreed to prevent any Trade or Commerce with Rhode-Iſland; and appointed a Committee to wait on the Captain of a Veſſel from Newport, that was at Stratford-river, to depart the Colony immediately; which the Captain promiſed to do, as ſoon as he had cleared his Veſſel at the Cuſtom-houſe.

The Inhabitants of the City of Annapolis in Maryland, have come into Reſolutions ſimilar with Philadelphia, to have no Intercourſe with Rhode-Iſland.

The Committee of Trade at Marblehead, have deſired Captain Trevett, to go from that Harbour with his Brig, as the Trade of Rhode-Iſland have not given any Satisfaction to the Colonies.

SALEM, June 5.

The Committee of Inſpection hereby inform the Public, that all the Cheeſe imported from Great-Britain this Seaſon into Salem, has (by the Conſent of the Importers) being a periſhable Article, been ſold at Public Auction to the higheſt Bidder; and what it ſhould fetch more than the Sterling Coſt and Charges, to be given to the Poor.

June 11. The ſix gentlemen of the general court who voted againſt the reſolution not to proceed to buſineſs out of the town of Boſton, are, honourable J. Worthington, Eſq; major Benjamin Day, Mr. Eliſha Potter, Mr. John Ingerſol, honourable T. Burgles, Eſq; and Daniel Oliver, Eſq.

PORTSMOUTH, (New-Hampſhire) June 25.

The General Aſſembly of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, now ſitting at Cambridge, are doing no other Buſineſs than ſending Meſſages to the Governor, proteſting and remonſtrating againſt the Legality of holding the Court there, and for Anſwer, he has repeatedly told them, it is not in his Power to remove them to Boſton. Finally the Houſe has reſolved not to proceed to Buſineſs, by a Majority of 96 out of 102 Members preſent, unleſs removed to the Court-Houſe in Boſton.

HARTFORD, (in Connecticut) June 6.

We hear from Paquonnuck, a pariſh in the weſtern part of Windſor, that about half an acre of the ſurface of the ground there, has lately ſunk, or fallen to a conſiderable depth below the common ſurface, or level, not unlike to what is frequently occaſioned by earthquakes, though attended with no eruptions either of water or fire, for which event no natural cauſe has yet been formed. And it is more unaccountable, as the ground that is ſunk was not contiguous to, or bordering upon, any precipice or declivity, nor adjacent to any collection of water that ſhould occaſion it to ſink.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) June 21.

We hear that a Congreſs is ſoon to be held in Connecticut, upon Matters relating to the Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, and that Committees from all the Northern Colonies will be invited to aſſiſt, except the Engliſh Colony of Rhode-Iſland.

June 25. Such a Spirit of Induſtry prevails among the Inhabitants of Lancaſter, in Pennſylvania, that upwards of 27,739 Yards of Linen, Stuffs, &c. have been manufactured in that Town, ſince the firſt of May, 1769.

We hear from Boſton, that Mr. McMaſters, an Importer of that Town, has been ſo worried, by being carted through almoſt all the Streets in Boſton, that he fainted away; and that after he came too a little, he was hurried away in the Cart as far as Roxbury, about three Miles from Boſton, where he was tipped up, and told to go about his Buſineſs; and that the Sons of Liberty had been ſeveral Days in Purſuit of two or three more Perſons.

NEW-YORK, June 25.

A Gentleman from the Mole, brings the following Account, which may be depended upon as authentic. "The Spirit of Liberty ſo much prevails in the Iſland of Hiſpaniola, that the general Toaſt is Liberty. The Inhabitants there are wiſhing for a War, thinking their Neighbours the Engliſh will ſoon ſettle them under that happy Conſtitution. The Gentleman that was the Ring-leader of the late Revolt in that Iſland, was ſent Home to France, in order to have a Recompence from the Court there, for his turning a Judas, and betraying all thoſe who were in the Conſpiracy along with him. He was well received there, and ſent back in a Frigate to Port-au-Prince. At his Arrival, he was put in Irons on board the Ship for ſome Days, until they could have a new Set made for him, then carried on Shore and put into the common Gaol; he there lives on Bread and Water, and is ſo confined that his Wife is not permitted to ſee him."

June 28. Friday Evening laſt, the Rev. Mr. George Whitefield arrived here from Philadelphia, and has ſince preached ſeveral Times in the Old-Meeting, to crouded Audiences.

Captain Lowndes, in ten Days from St. Thomas's, acquaints us, that while he lay at that Iſland, an Engliſh Ship of 20 Guns, paſſed by there in her Way to Porto-Rico, to demand a Number of Negroes that had run-away from ſeveral Engliſh Iſlands, and had taken ſhelter there, and that in caſe the Spaniards refuſed to deliver them up, the Captain of the Man of War had Orders from the Admiral at Antigua, to make Repriſals on the Spaniards.

We hear that on Tueſday laſt, one Hills, a Stranger, was detected in ſelling, or attempting to ſell, a Quantity of Goods purchaſed in Boſton, Newport, &c. and brought here contrary to the Non-Importation Agreement. He delivered up the Goods, which were afterwards depoſited in the Houſe of Mr. Plat. The ſame Night between one and two o'Clock, a Number of Perſons in Diſguiſe, went to Mr. Plat's Houſe, demanded and obliged him to deliver the Goods, which they carried to an adjoining vacant Lot, and finding a large Fire, committed the whole to the Flames. The Value of the Goods is ſuppoſed to be above 200 l. we hear the Owner has abſconded.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.

The Ship Sharp, Captain Spier, is arrived here from Glaſgow, but laſt from New-York, and has Goods on board, imported contrary to the Non-Importation Agreement, which we underſtand will not be received, but immediately returned.

Every Part of the Province ſeems roufed at the Danger to which their Liberties are expoſed by the Claim of Parliament to tax America, and unanimous to enforce the Non-Importation Agreement, which ſeems the only Means of recovering their Rights. Upon the News of the Newport Merchants breaking their Agreement, Baltimore, Newcaſtle, Wilmington, Cheſter, and every Town down the River, took the Alarm, and determined to have no Dealings with them, until they made Atonement for their Defection, and returned to their Duty. Captains Sterry and Whitney, in two Sloops from Rhode-Iſland, were ordered to depart from Baltimore immediately; and two other Veſſels belonging to the ſame Place, which left this City, having ſtopt at Cheſter, were told by the Inhabitants that they muſt expect no Trade there.

June 21. An Alarm greatly prevails in this City, that the execrable northern Swarm, whoſe Foot-ſteps have been marked with the Blood of Americans, have it in View to move themſelves from Boſton to this Place; and that a certain Dependant is now in Town conſulting with ſome others of that Connection, with reſpect to taking a Houſe, &c. What ſeems to Favour it, is the removal of the Cuſtom-Houſe Money from thence, to the Cheſt in this Town.

WILLIAMSBURGH, (in Virginia) MAY 31.

Laſt Tueſday arrived in town from North-Carolina, on his tour through the colonies, Sir William Draper, Knight of the Bath, accompanied by his nephew Captain Collins of the navy, with his Lady, and Mr. Beresford, jun.

Laſt Monday the reverend James Horrocks, the lord biſhop of London's commiſſary for Virginia, was ſworn in one of his Majeſty's council of this colony, and a judge of the general court.

WESTMINSTER, MAY 19.

THIS day his Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his royal robes ſeated on the throne with the uſual ſolemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, gentleman uſher of the black rod, was ſent with a meſſage from his Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The commons being come thither accordingly, his Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal aſſent to, An Act for eſtabliſhing a lottery, and for other purpoſes; An Act for continuing the bounties on Britiſh and Iriſh linens exported; An Act for encouraging the making of Indico, in the Britiſh plantations in America; An Act to enable the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly, of his Majeſty's colony of New-York, to paſs an act of aſſembly for creating and iſſuing upon loan, Paper bills of credit; An Act for the further preventing delays of juſtice by reaſon of privilege of parliament; An Act to enable the ſpeaker of the Houſe of Commons to iſſue his warrants to make out new writs for the choice of members to ſerve in Parliament, in the room of ſuch members as ſhall die during the receſs of Parliament; An Act to prevent the further ſpreading of the contagious diſorder among the horned cattle in Great-Britain; An Act for rendering more effectual ſeveral acts, for providing a public reward for diſcovering the longitude at ſea; And to ſeveral other public and private bills.

After which his Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following Moſt Gracious SPEECH:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE ſeaſon of the year, and the diſpatch you have given the public buſineſs, make it proper for me to put an end to this ſeſſion of Parliament.

The temper, with which you have conducted all your proceedings, has given me great ſatisfaction, and I promiſe myſelf the happieſt effects from the firmneſs as well as the moderation which you have manifeſted in the very critical circumſtances which have attended your late deliberations.

With reſpect to foreign affairs, I have nothing material to communicate to you. I will continue my endeavours to appeaſe, if poſſible, the troubles which ſtill prevail in ſome parts of Europe, or at leaſt to prevent them from ſpreading farther. In all events it ſhall be my firſt and conſtant care to watch over the intereſts, and to preſerve undiminiſhed the rights, of my people.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I return you my thanks for the ſupplies you have ſo chearfully granted for the ſervice of the current year, as well as for your attention to make uſe of every opportunity of reducing the national debt. The proviſion you have been able to make in this ſeſſion for diſcharging ſo conſiderable a ſum, without laying any further burthen on my ſubjects, cannot but be highly advantageous to public credit.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I muſt earneſtly recommend to you to exert, in your reſpective counties, the ſame zeal and prudence that you have ſhewn in Parliament for promoting the peace and the welfare of the kingdom: Nothing can be ſo favourable to the wiſhes of thoſe, who look with jealouſy on the ſtrength and proſperity of this country, as the prevalence of animoſities and diſſentions amongſt ourſelves: Let it therefore be your care to diſcountenance every attempt to infuſe groundleſs ſuſpicions and diſcontent into the minds of your fellow ſubjects; make them ſenſible of my conſtant attention to promote their happineſs, and convince them, that nothing can ſo effectually ſecure their liberties as the maintenance of every part of our excellent conſtitution in its due force and authority.

The Parliament was then prorogued to the 19th of July.

CHARLES-TOWN, JULY 24.

YESTERDAY the Honourable the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province met here, agreeable to Prorogation, when his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor was pleaſed farther to prorogue them, to Tueſday the 14th of Auguſt next, then to meet for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs.

We hear from New-York, that his Majeſty's Ships ſtationed from Virginia to Cape Florida, with the Bahama Iſlands, will ſoon be ſeparated from the Halifax Command.

By Letters from Boſton, we learn, that the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms are gone to Caſtle-William, from whence it is hoped they will never return.

Some Time laſt Month, was caſt away on the Martyrs near Cape Florida, a Spaniſh Man of War of 20 Guns, having General O'Reilly, and other Officers on board, with a conſiderable Sum of Money, bound from the Havana, for Old Spain. The People with all the Money were ſaved, and arrived at Cuba, but the Ship with the reſt of the Cargo is entirely loſt.

We hear from Virginia that the General Aſſembly there, have voted Two thouſand five hundred Pounds Sterling, for ſettling the Boundary Line between that Province and the Indian Hunting Grounds, under the Direction of the Superintendant of Indian Affairs for the Southern Diſtrict.

Saturday laſt his Majeſty's Packet-Boat Sandwich, Captain Richard Nottingham, ſailed with the Mails for Falmouth.

MARRIED.] Mr. Jonathan Sarrazin, to Mrs. Sarah Prioleau, Widow of the late Elijah Prioleau, Eſq.---Mr. George Flagg, to Miſs Mary Anderſon, Daughter of Mr. John Anderſon.

PROPOSALS FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE DRAUGHTS Of SOUTH-CAROLINA:

Being a complete MAP of the ſaid PROVINCE, from an actual SURVEY.

AS our Work has met with the Approbation of the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, we hope our Propoſals will merit the Favour of the Public, and therefore think it neceſſary to inform them in general, on what Plan it will be executed.

I. It will make a Map Six Feet Four Inches, by Five Feet Four Inches, neatly engraved on a Scale of Three Miles to One Inch, with all the Houſes and Proprietors Names of any Note; the Swamps, Marſhes, High-Lands, Iſlands, Roads, Forts, Towns, Counties, Pariſhes; Pariſh Counties, and Provincial Lines; the Sea-Coaſt, navigable Bays, Inlets, Creeks, Rivers, Ferries, Bridges, and inland Navigations; all marked and digeſted in a diſtinguiſhable Manner. Alſo an enlarged Plan of the Bar and Harbour of Charles-Town, with a Ground Plat of the ſame, with References to the whole. In ſhort, no Expence will be ſpared to render it as complete and uſeful as any Map extant.

II. Each Subſcriber to have one complete Sett, and to pay on the Delivery (which we hope will be in Twelve Months) ONE GUINEA and an HALF. The Gentlemen who pleaſe to favour us with their Subſcriptions, ſhall have their Names carefully publiſhed in an alphabetical Liſt, unleſs they deſire the contrary.

We cannot omit informing the Public, that the Situation of South-Carolina, from the Variety of Rivers, Creeks, Swamps, and inland Navigation, will add greatly to the Beauty of this Map.—The interior Parts will be no leſs curious, being interſperſed and variegated with Rivers, Creeks, and rich Lands. We are, the PUBLIC's

Moſt obedient, humble Servants,
JAMES COOK,
TACITUS GAILLARD.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by Meſſrs. Ancrums & Co. Wilſon, Coram, Wayne, & Co. Henry Laurens, Chriſtopher Gadſden, Thomas Farr, Thomas Shirley, Aaron Loocock, Nicholas Langford, Daniel Cannon, Robert Dillon, Peter Timothy, and by ſundry other Gentlemen of each Pariſh.

JOHN DEAS,
} Attornies for Nicholas Linwood, and William Baker, Eſqrs.

RUN-away from the ſubſcriber living in Georgia, about three weeks ſince, two NEGRO FELLOWS, named SIMON and TOPSHAM; they both lately belonged to the eſtate of Capt. John Cattell, of St. George's pariſh, deceaſed, and 'tis thought they are come to this province, and harboured at the plantation called Wampee Savannah, where the ſaid Cattell reſided: Simon is a very likely young fellow, about five feet eight inches high, well known in St. George's pariſh, and did formerly belong to Col. John Skeene, deceaſed: Topſham is a ſtout well made fellow, about 30 years of age, five feet five inches high, and carries on his back the marks of an old offender. Whoever apprehends the ſaid negroes, and delivers them to me in Georgia aforeſaid, to Mr. Daniel Donovan, or the warden of the work-houſe in Charles-Town, ſhall receive FIFTEEN POUNDS currency reward for each.

May 16, 1770. JOSIAH TATNELL.

N. B. Since the above Advertiſement was firſt inſerted, the ſaid two NEGROES have both been ſeen in this town; and as TOPSHAM has frequently been harboured for 12 months at a time at Cainhoy, where he has ſome relations, particularly at Doctor SIMS's, 'tis now ſuppoſed they are both gone over there.
